Project Phase		Guideword
MRU Integration Project Post-Shutdown Phase
Causes
High to Continuous demand for CPP cranes during Adsorbent and ceramic balls filling / loading activities - transfer between vessel to work site, transfer / holding of cat cans during loading activities and during night shift
Safeguards
None
Consequences
High to Continuous demand for Crane usage leading to possible accelerated equipment inspection and maintenance requirement, recommended parts replacement, etc. resulting in unavailability of crane and delays to complete adsorbent and ceramic balls filling / loading activities
Initial risk		Residual Risk
None		None
Recommendations/ Actions
To mobilize crane technician (technician with Level 3 operator license) for work campaign, considering high frequency, duration of crane use and use throughout night shift. (crane technician with operator license is proposed considering manning limitations during work campaign, i.e. 1 pax instead of 2 pax).
